About Our Institution

Govinda Dasa PU College, as an active centre of learning process, constantly strives hard to nurture young minds, to empower them on self-reliance, integrity and responsibility. Learning here could be a joyous journey.

The College is functioning under the proud management of Hindu Vidyadayinee Sangha (R.), Surathkal, which claims to be the pioneer institute with rich history of completing centenary year (Estd.1916), established with the intention of catering the academic needs of rural students in and around Surathkal. Seven esteemed institutions are guided and managed under single roof of Hindu Vidyadayinee Sangha (R.), wherein quality education from Play School to Post-Graduation is provided. The College came into existence in the year 1967, as per the norms of Karnataka State Government. In the year 2001, the Pre-University College has been bifurcated. The College, has a Spacious Library, Play ground, Laboratories and Conference Hall. Teaching faculty work together to empower students to explore their potential to the fullest. The college takes pride in its impressive record of achievements, which includes numerous state-level ranks in various disciplines, as well as outstanding performances in state-level sports & games and cultural competitions.
